

Homework 8

1. Install PIL

2. Write a program to read all of the JPEG images in the current directory, do something interesting to each (change it's size, filter it, etc.), and write it back to disk in PNG format. Just send me the program, and a description of what it does, not the images.